

2 January 2018

Sasfin phishing email alert

Sasfin has become aware that some of its clients have received phishing emails which appear to be sent from Sasfin employees relating to invoices or order confirmations.

We caution anyone coming into contact with such an email to not click on the link or enable editing.

The e-mail address that follows the employee name is in no way associated with Sasfin per the below examples:

From: ██████████@sasfin.com [<mailto:raquel.grace@kwm.com.mx>]

From: ██████████@sasfin.com [<mailto:proveedores@santadeo.com.mx>]

From: ██████████ [mailto:jtgch@boffinaccessinc\(.\).com.com)]

From: ██████████@sasfin.com [mailto:sonal@g4computers\(.\).com.com)]

From: ██████████@sasfin.com [<mailto:cooratiendas.supply@quickhelp.com.co>]

From: ██████████@sasfin.com [<mailto:mweb.co.za.whatthel@comcast.net>]

From: ██████████@sasfin.com [mailto:pioneer.co.za.sgiska.717@comcast\(.\).net.net)]

Should you receive such an email, kindly ignore and delete it, as these emails do not emanate from Sasfin.

ENDS