1.INTRODUCTION

The Promotion of Access to Information Act 2 of 2000 (the Act), as amended by the Promotion of Access to Information Amendment Act 54 of 2002, and the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013, requires Sasfin Holdings Limited (the Group) and/or each of its subsidiaries which are regarded as responsible persons, to each maintain a manual which contains information on how to use the Act to access its records. The Act gives effect to the constitutional right of access to information held by the state, another person or private body and this is required for the exercise or protection of any rights. Fintech (Pty) Ltd (Fintech) forms part of the Group. This PAIA manual outlines, inter alia, the types of records and Personal Information (PI) that is held by Fintech and provides the procedure to request access to these records and PI.

2.OBJECTIVES

This manual informs requesters of procedural and other requirements which a request must meet as prescribed by the Act. Its purpose is to help requesters access Fintech's information and any other information that Fintech has. The Act requires Fintech to make it available to requesters so that requesters:

- know what types of information Fintech has; and
- can request access to it.

The manual is intended to provide Fintech with a set of guidelines aimed at addressing access to information requests in terms of the Act. This manual serves to demonstrate Fintech's culture of transparency and accountability by giving effect to the right to information that is required for the exercise or protection of any right and to actively promote a society in which the people of South Africa have effective access to information to enable them to more fully exercise and protect their rights. The objectives of this manual must be balanced against the need to ensure confidentiality of information relating to but not limited to:

- Commercial confidentiality;
- Effective, efficient and good governance; and
- The protection of privacy.

3.SCOPE

This manual applies to all Personnel.

6.THE INFORMATION REGULATOR OF SOUTH AFRICA

The functions of the South African Human Rights Commission (SAHRC) in terms of the Act have been transferred to the Information Regulator in terms of s110 of the Protection of Personal Information Act.

The Information Regulator of South Africa (IRSA) is mandated under the Act to:

- Promote the right to access to information;
- Monitor the implementation of the Act by the Group;
- Make recommendations to strengthen the Act; and
- Report annually to Parliament.

The IRSA has compiled an easy-to-understand guide in terms of s10 of the Act, to assist Requesters in accessing records and documents in order to exercise or protect the right to information. The guide is available in each official language of South Africa. Please find the link to the PAIA guide in English, Afrikaans, and Zulu respectively.

The contact details of the Information Regulator are as follows:

The Information Regulator:

Physical address: JD House, 27 Stiemens Street, Braamfontein, Johannesburg, 2001

Enquiries email: enquiries@info regulator.org.za

7. INFORMATION REQUEST PROCEDURE

Considering the objectives of the Act and the need to give effect to the right of access to information, it is necessary to detail the manner in which information from Fintech can be accessed. In this regard, the Requester must comply with the procedural requirements contained in the Act relating to the request for access to a record, the following should be noted:

1. The Requester must complete the prescribed form enclosed herewith as “Appendix 1” and submit same, as well as a request fee and a deposit, if applicable, to the Information Officer or the Deputy Information Officer at the provided postal or physical address, fax number or electronic mail address. It must be noted that Appendix 1 is commonly known as “Form 2” and is readily available at info regulator.org.za
2. The prescribed form must be completed with enough detail to enable the Information Officer to identify –
 - the record requested;
 - the identity of the Requester;
 - the form of access required should the request be granted;
 - the email address, postal address or fax number of the Requester;

- any other way the Requester would like to be informed of Fintech's decision other than in writing.
3. The Requester must state that he/she requires the information in order to exercise or protect a right, and clearly state the nature of the right that is so to be exercised or protected. In addition, the Requester must clearly specify why the record is necessary in order to exercise or protect such a right.
 4. If a request is made on behalf of another person, then the Requester must submit proof of the capacity in which he/she is making the request to the reasonable satisfaction of the Information Officer.
 5. The Requester must pay the prescribed fee before any further processing can take place.
 6. If a Requester does not use Form 2, Fintech may:
 - reject the request due to lack of procedural compliance;
 - refuse the request if the requester does not provide sufficient information; or
 - delay the request the record requested.
 7. The Information Officer will notify the Requester within 30 days as to whether the request has been granted or not. The Information Officer may ask for an extension for a period of no more than 30 (thirty) additional days for specific reasons, which include the request involving:
 - a large volume of documents;
 - consultation with members of Fintech's or possibly the Group's Executives, Business Units and/ or other entities.
 8. If the request is granted, the notice will describe any applicable access fees and procedures to be followed, unless the Requester has asked for access in a specific form. If the request is refused, the notice will describe the reasons for the refusal.
 9. The Information Officer may decide to defer the release of the record to the Requester if the record is intended to be published within 90 days or if the record is required by law to be published.
 10. If the Information Officer cannot find the requested record or if it does not exist, the Information Officer will notify the Requester, via an affidavit, that it is not possible to give access to the record.

11. This Manual does not grant any rights to access information records, except in terms of the Act.

8. TYPES OF REQUESTERS

Records, held by Fintech may be accessed after the prerequisite formalities in terms of the Act have been complied with. Two types of parties may act as Requesters in this process namely:

- Personal Requesters; and
- Other Requesters

8.1 Personal Requesters

A personal Requester is a Requester who is seeking access to a record containing personal information about the Requester.

Fintech may voluntarily provide the requested information or give access to any record regarding the Requester's personal information. The prescribed fee for reproduction of the information requested will be charged.

8.2 Other Requesters

This type of Requester is one who is entitled to request access to information pertaining to third parties. Fintech is not obliged to voluntarily grant access to these types of records. The Requester must, as such, fulfil the requirements for access in terms of the Act, including the payment of a request and access fee.

9. RECORDS

In order to facilitate a request in terms of the Act it is necessary to note the categories of records that Fintech holds and which, as a rule, are available upon request. The information held by Fintech is classified and grouped according to those categories as listed in 9.1 to 9.13 below.

The categories of records held by Fintech may pertain to personal information as classified by the Protection of Personal Information Act.

Cognizance must be taken of the fact that accessibility to the documents listed herein, may be subject to the grounds of refusal in accordance with justifiable limitations set out in the Act, including but not limited to:

- limitations aimed at the reasonable protection of privacy;
- commercial confidentiality; and
- effective, efficient and good governance.

- Fintech may possess records pertaining to other parties, including without limitation contractors, suppliers, subsidiary / holding / sister companies, joint venture companies, and service providers. Alternatively, such other parties may possess records that can be said to belong to Fintech.

10. AUTOMATICALLY AVAILABLE INFORMATION

The following records are automatically available:

- product information;
- campaigns;
- posters;
- any public promotional material

11.FEES

The Act provides for two types of fees (Appendix 2), namely:

- a request fee, which will be a standard fee, and
- an access fee, which must be calculated by considering reproduction costs, search and preparation time and cost, as well as postal costs.

When the request is received by the Information Officer, such officer shall by notice require the Requester, other than a personal Requester, to pay the prescribed request fee (if any), before further processing of the request.

If the search for the Record has been made and the preparation of the Record for disclosure, including arrangement to make it available in the requested form, requires more than the hours prescribed in the regulations for this purpose, the Information Officer shall notify the Requester to pay as a deposit the prescribed portion of the access fee which would be payable if the request is granted.

The Information Officer shall withhold a record until the Requester has paid the fees as indicated in “Appendix 2”.

A Requester whose request for access to a record has been granted, must pay an access fee for reproduction and for search and preparation, and for any time reasonably required in excess of the prescribed hours to search for and prepare the record for disclosure including deciding to make it available in the request form.

If a deposit has been paid in respect of a request for access, which is declined, then the Information Officer concerned must repay the deposit to the Requester. It must be noted that Requesters who earn less than R14 712 (fourteen thousand seven hundred and twelve Rand) per year (if single) and R27 192 (twenty seven thousand one hundred and ninety two Rand) per year (if married or in a life partnership), do not have to pay access fees.

12.DECISION

Fintech will, within 30 (thirty) days (calendar month) of receipt of the request, decide whether to grant or decline the request and give notice with reasons to that effect.

The 30 (thirty) day period with which Fintech has to decide whether to grant or refuse the request, may be extended for a further period of not more than 30 (thirty) days if the request is for a large number of information and the information cannot reasonably be obtained within the original 30 (thirty) day period.

13.GROUNDS FOR REFUSAL OF ACCESS TO RECORDS

The right of access to information is enshrined in the Bill of Rights of the South African Constitution. In order to give effect to this right, access to information should be granted as often as possible. Like many other rights contained in the Bill of Rights, the right of access to information can be limited or refused in certain circumstances. To this end, Fintech may refuse a request for access to information on any of the following grounds:

1. mandatory protection of a third party’s privacy (natural person), which would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information of that natural person;
2. mandatory protection of the commercial information of a third party, if the record contains –
 - trade secrets of that third party;
 - financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of that third party;
 - information disclosed in confidence by a third party to the Group;

3. mandatory protection of confidential information of third parties if it is protected in terms of any agreement: express, tacit or implied;
4. mandatory protection of the safety of individuals and the protection of property;
5. mandatory protection of records which would be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings;
6. the commercial activities of Fintech, which may include-
 - trade secrets of the institution;
 - financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure thereof could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of Fintech
 - information which, if disclosed could put Fintech at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
 - a computer program which is owned by Fintech, and which is protected by copyright.
7. Fintech or a third party's research information, if its disclosure would disclose the identity of Fintech, the researcher or the subject matter of the research and would place the research at a serious disadvantage.
8. Information which would provide an investor or potential investor with "inside information".

14. REMEDIES AVAILABLE WHEN FINTECH REFUSES A REQUEST FOR INFORMATION

Internal Remedies

Fintech has no internal appeal procedure and the decision made by the Information Officer or her / his deputy is final. Requesters whose requests for information are declined, or who are not satisfied with the information supplied by the Information Officer, must make use of external remedies.

External Remedies

A Requester who is dissatisfied with a decision by the Information Officer to grant access, to impose access fees or to extend the time period in which to respond, may apply to a Court for relief within 180 (one hundred and eighty) calendar days of receiving the decision/ notification. For purposes of the Act, the Courts that have jurisdiction over these applications are the Constitutional Court, the High Court or other courts of similar status.
